Assembly

Students showed off their Art Work and Story Writing at Assembly last week.

New Faces

Welcome to Ellie Herring who will be attending our school until 19th October.

Ellie's Story

I come from a place near Boural called Mittagong. It's an hour down from Sydney. I'm out at White Cliffs for about two weeks and staying with my Grandparents, Barbara and Brian Saunders, in their dugout. My Pa also has a mine. This is my third time here and it's really different here from home. At my school there are 420 students, more than White Cliffs itself but it's still counted as a small school. I really like being at White Cliffs because it's really different from home and everyone is really nice, including the school children and all the fantastic staff.

Also welcome to Kyan Cashmore who will be with us for the rest of the week. Ky is in Year 1. He is visiting his Grandfather Bernie Cashmore. Ky and his father live in Warburton Victoria.
