MRS COOK'S AWARDS

Abby: Beautiful picture and story about the witch. Also, a lovely classroom worker.

Clay: Bringing in his baby birds to show us and his beautiful fish artwork.

Jessica-Rose: Reading "The Flower Girl" so well and for having lovely manners.

Griffin: Fantastic student at the Music Video Conference with Rachel.

Kelly: Super duper technical helper for Miss Anne at the Music Video Conference.

Alexis: Fantastic witch story. Also, a wonderful classroom worker.

Talitha: Beautiful fish artwork. Also, lovely classroom manners and a great listener.

Laura: Always interested in discussions and a great classroom helper.

Mackenzie: Humorous and witty story about the willful witch. Also, a mature and reliable senior student.

Anton: Great participant in Ashley's cooking class. Helpful consumer of the food too.

Thank you to Mrs Cook for coming out from Broken Hill and teaching the students last week so I could attend the Principals' Conference in Mildura.

NUTRITION WITH ASHLEY

On Thursday Ashley from Maari Ma Health talked to the students about good nutrition.

The students then made "1 Minute Microwave Quiche in a Mug" and "Microwave Berry Mug Muffins".

ACMF VIDEO CONFERENCE

On Thursday the students participated in a Music Video Conference presented by Rachael Scott from the Australian Children's Music Foundation.

P&C MEETING

There will be a P&C Meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30pm in the office. We will be discussing and planning our new School Plan. Everyone Welcome!

WOW - (Wear Orange Wednesday)

Don't forget to wear orange on Wednesday to show your support for the SES.

ACTIVE AFTER SCHOOL SPORTS

Active After School Sports is on Wednesday afternoon. Students can be picked up from school at 4:30pm.

Quote

"Every child is gifted. They just unwrap their packages at different times."

Have a great week
